spiritual trouble. The most important point about parent must have a real, passionate, intimate person. It must not be a mechanical relationship, but a real relationship with the Lord. A real relationship, Ephesians 6:4.

The second point is making sure you get that spiritual relationship with the child. The child has to have a spiritual relationship with the Lord. You must get the heart of the child and be a good example for him to spiritually follow.

spiritual relationship across to the child with the Lord. Proverbs 23:26. Example for him to spiritually follow.

I believe it is important to not just tell the child but to take the time and make the effort to show them why. If you desire to talk about the proper kind of prayer with the child. If the child is having a spiritual relationship with the Lord then God will deal with them.

if you cannot go because I said so, then the child from the Word of God. Biblical love shows scripture and a spiritual relationship with the Lord then WARNING: You can say no to the child all the time and instruction and you will raise a rebel. Proverb five times and God gives you opportunity to instruct emotions and cave in. If you fail to instruct or let the child spiritually both ways. You must train your emotions, but by what God says.

without a Biblical explanation. It mentions instruction twenty-five times. Or you can be led by your emotions or you can be led by your emotions. Or you can be led by your emotions. Or you can be led by your emotions.

What do I do if I have failed? Children must see Dad and Mom respond to the Holy Spirit. God's kind of person is submissive, controlled by the Holy Spirit.

Dad and Mom respond to the Holy Spirit. Dad and Mom respond to the Holy Spirit. Dad and Mom respond to the Holy Spirit.

1. Confess yours into God. I John 1:9
2. Call a family meeting and tell your children you have sinned. Parents and children need to talk about the changes you as parents and they as children are going to make. If you have sinned against someone, God tells you to go to the person you have sinned against. In reality by not leading properly you have sinned against the child. Pray for God to help you have the sensitivity to the Holy Spirit to do what is correct. This may be hard, but it is necessary. Do not go here if you are real, but you are not serious about making a real spiritual, Biblical change in your life. You will not get a second chance if you are not real about this. Many times the children have gotten so far away they really do not care. Explain to the child that God has dealt with you. Explain the areas you have failed in and if there is a specific area that the Holy Spirit brings to mind. Tell them you have asked God to forgive you and then ask them to forgive you and then they live for God. at you want to see
3. Pray with them and for them daily.
4. Live by your convictions (what the Bible says) in front of them and with them the rest of the way. Make sure you are having an intimate, personal, passionate, relationship with the Lord. Look at His Word on what you should do, and put it into practice daily in your life and your children's life.

5. Trust God for His deliverance for them.

Many parents have older children who have not been trained according to the principles of God's Word. Do those parents get a second chance? In God's economy, it is never too late to make corrections and see fruit. But those parents must be willing to admit they made a mistake in raising their children. If you are a parent who recognizes that you have not trained your children properly and desire to correct the situation you must consider the five points above and begin to bring your parenting practices into Biblical conformity. It is never too late to start. Retraining is like starting over. You need to be consistent. Say what you mean and mean what you say. You may get a second chance with your children, but you will not get a third.

Experience has shown that children under ten adapt to new rules and positive parenting practices much more readily than children in their teens. However, children in both age groups will watch you to see how sincere you are in your desire to make changes. Once you have proven your sincerity, the younger ones tend to accept your new standard and the older ones many times follow.

Changing parenting habits take time. But each day and help you to be the parent that He wants you to be. With God's help you will lead your children to responsible adulthood for His glory and your peace of mind. Do not be overwhelmed at the task. Spend time alone with God in the Word and ask Him to show you the areas that need correction. First stand what is His scriptural remedy. Pray for wisdom, James 1:5. God's promise is in this verse: He will give you wisdom. James 4:8 "Draw near to God and He will draw near to you." Making Biblical, spiritual change in our lives requires we are real with God. James 4:10 "Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord and He will lift you up." It is our prayer that you will rear your children to honor and glory of God, I Corinthians 6:19-20.
